hi-way

Now children sing where once they cried
And cry where once they sang;
Today we dance where once we died And die where once we danced

A pattern unchangeable—it just moves like us—not changing just going here and there, The thing is . . .

We know the pattern so well but we never know where it's going next.

louis john common stranger meets arthur average young man my its a wonderful day he thought the sun is bright the air is clean the birds song and foliage are cheery and there isnt a person

in sight this young man wasnt unusual he was really quite average in fact the brown hair was short (conservative) and his features as a whole were quite terribly ordinary except his eyes his eyes twinkled they laughed out loud when he was happy and cried large and freely flowing tears when he was sad (not often) immediately following the young mans observations on the weather and environmental conditions he noticed a stranger approaching and being a friendly fellow he said hello
hello
replied the stranger beautiful day isnt it asked arthur for actually that was his name even though he didnt like it certainly is replied the stranger not a cloud in the sky there ensued a pause during which arthur observed that the stranger actually wasnt strange at all yes thought arthur hes

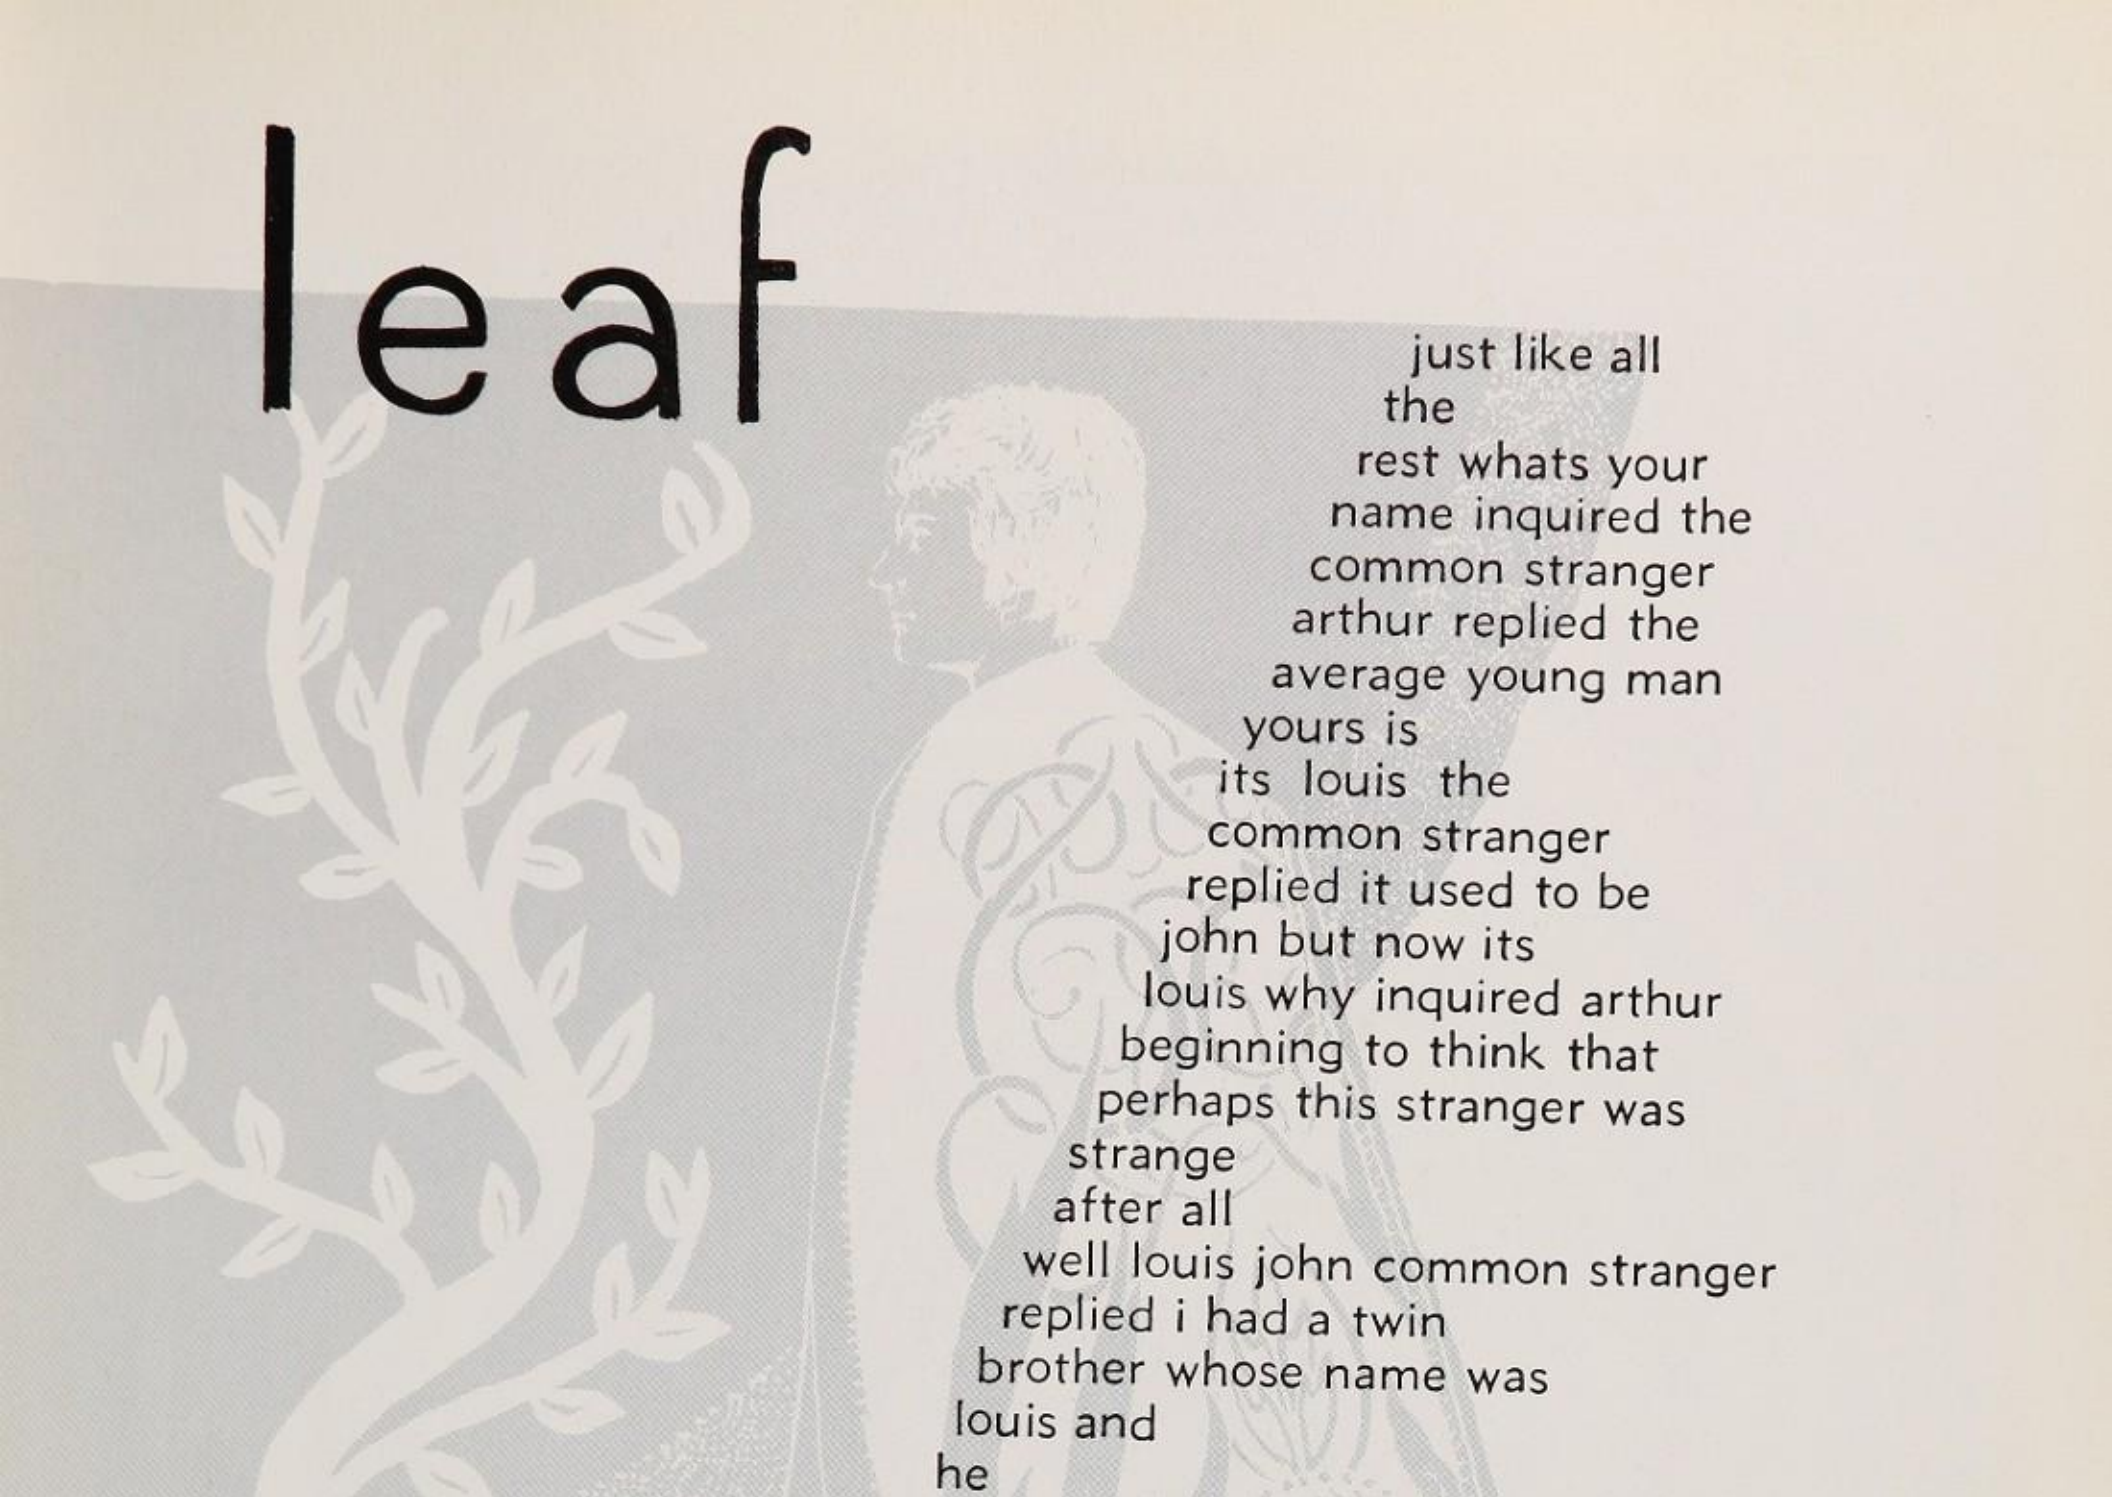
leaf



just like all
rest whats your name inquired the common stranger
arthur replied the average young man yours is its louis the
replied it used to be john but now its louis why inquired arthur beginning to think that perhaps this stranger was strange after all well louis john common stranger replied i had a twin brother whose name was louis and he died
so i took his name sounds reasonable replied of course its reasonable screamed louis john not so common stranger mother always liked louis best and now im louis at which point arthur removed a gun and got personal beating louis john common stranger on and about the face and
head
after all he thought louis
is dead isnt he

THE 1968 HI-WAY

Leonard Maltin
Editor-in-Chief

Dear Class of '68:

At this time, I would like to congratulate the Hi-Way Staff and myself for having produced anything vaguely resembling a yearbook, against virtually insurmountable obstacles. Like not having any money. And no space. And very little time. We hope you have as much fun reading it as we had putting it together.

Oh, by the way, with the money we did raise, I was able to book passage to Johannesburg. Anyone who has complaints can contact me there under the alias of Patrice Lamumba.

WHAT IS A FRIEND?

A friend is someone who likes you Someone with whom you can really be Yourself, one who appreciates the Good in you, overlooks the bad in you,
And brings out the best in you.
With a friend you can share a laugh, A secret, a viewpoint, a success or A disappointment and a complete Assortment of problems, large and small.
A friend is someone who understands Silences as well as words . . . one who is With you and for you . . . stands by you . . .
Forgives you. One who lifts you up And never lets you down . . . and who makes You feel it's a pretty nice old world After all. How would we know so well?
Because we have found such friendships
In each other.
